

Dr. Richard Daugherty of Washington Township accepts the Alexander Macomb Award on April 30, 2011 at the Macomb County Historical Alliance annual meeting and conference.

Romeo Historical Society board members nominated Richard Daugherty because of his extensive documentation of Romeo area history over the last 40 years and continued work to preserve Macomb history. His work listed Romeo in the National Register of Historical Places in 1970. Professor Daugherty also has taught history at Macomb Community College for over 47 years.
